

or if said applicant shall reside in the city of Baltimore, then to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, the sum of fifty dollars for each and every such license.

87. No pedlar shall traffic or trade in spirituous liquors in any manner whatever.

88. If any person shall sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer, in quantities less than a pint, without taking out license therefor as herein provided, he shall, upon conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars for each offence; and on failure to pay the same, together with the costs of prosecution, shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur.

89. If any person shall barter or sell any goods, wares or merchandise except spirituous and fermented liquors and lager beer, in quantities not less than a pint, without taking out license therefor as hereinbefore provided, he shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence; and upon failure to pay said fine, and the costs of prosecution, shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of twenty days, whichever shall first occur.

90. If any person shall take out an ordinary license, as herein provided by law, without having the bedding and other accommodations required, he shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of prosecution; and upon failure to pay the same, shall be committed to jail and confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur; and it shall be the duty of the court before whom such person shall be convicted, to suppress his license.

91. In all prosecutions for a violation of any of the provisions of this article relating to licenses to sell goods, wares, or merchandise, or spirituous or fermented liquors, one-half of the fine shall be paid to the informer, and the other half to the State; and it shall be the duty of the grand jury to endorse on the back of the indictment the name of the informer.